Grant Does Well.

Grant, his team mate, also distinguished himself by winning three events, breaking the tape ahead of other competiters in the high and low hurdles and won many a game on the local diamond the bar at five feet five inches.

Reuter, who is experiencing his first this year. season as a member of the Central High team, loomed up as the leading point winner for the Washingtonians. The youngster finished second to Pendleton in the three events which were credited to and saved the day when he entered the plucky athlete in the running broad jump Before to-day he had never tested his skill at the event, but entered on the cellent leap of twenty feet ten inches.

Youngsters Classy.

The creditable showing of several other youngsters who have been developed under the eagle eye of a veteran trainer was another decided feature. Currie, Central's entry in the high jump, copped second honors with a leap of five feet four inches, in spite of the fact that he has been training for the event but a few months. Nichols, another novice, made his debut as a long-distance runner, and made his reputed team mate, Bryant, extend himself to the limit in order to win of the juniors, Tibbits, Hunt, and Throckmorton Dady Esther. Bragg, of Central, and Crawford, of Episcopal, excelled.

New York, May 25.-Nearly 5,000 persons took advantage of the fine weather to see the races at Belmont Park to-day. The spot was of a high order of excellence, but four favorites suffered defeat. The Claremont Handicap was a feature, with Jack Atkin a not first choice. The famous Sain horse was hardly ready for racing, and ran far below his hest form. He got away from the post slowly, and, though he made a game attempt to get up to the pacemakers in the last quarter of a mile, he had to be contented with third. De Mund cut out the early pace, as usual, attended by Mary Davis. But after going half the distance Mary Davis drew away and won by two lengths. Mary Davis' time, 1:18, was a new record for the race.

Angerona was the winner of the Fashon stakes for two-year-old fillies. She did not loom up as a factor until the last quarter-pole was reached, when Guy Burns got very busy, and the Sir Dixon filly gradually forged to the front to win y a length and a half from Calypte.
